About the college

With an aim to cater to the emerging needs of teacher education in West Bengal, All Bengal Teachers' Training College was born in the year 1967. This college was renamed as Satyapriya Roy College of Education in the year 2006 to acknowledge the contribution of Satyapriya Roy in the field of School education as well as teachers' movement. This nomenclature has been duly approved by the University of Calcutta and the Government of West Bengal, UGC and NCTE by notification. At the national level, National Council of Teacher Education (NCTE) has accepted and acknowledged the certification of Bachelor of Education of this college since 1995 and Master of Education since 2016. Continuous updating of knowledge and use of modern technology in Teacher Education with enhancement of capability through pursuits of higher knowledge have been the mission of the college. The college is affiliated to the Baba Saheb Ambedkar Education University (Erstwhile WBUTTEPA) since 2016.

Join us on a journey of leadership development and organizational success.

Concept Notes of the Seminar

Introduction:

The field of education is undergoing rapid transformation, driven by technological advancements, evolving societal needs, and global challenges. Teacher education and research are at the heart of this transformation, as they shape the educators who will prepare future generations for an increasingly complex world. The theme "Futuristic Vision: Cutting-Edge Issues in Teacher Education and Research" seeks to explore innovative approaches, emerging trends, and critical challenges in preparing educators for the future. This conference aims to bring together researchers, policymakers, educators, and stakeholders to discuss and envision the future of teacher education and research.

Objectives

1. To identify and discuss the latest trends and innovations in teacher education and research.
2. To explore the role of technology, interdisciplinary approaches and global perspectives in shaping future-ready educators.
3. To address challenges such as equity, inclusion, sustainability and teacher retention in the context of teacher education.
4. To foster collaboration among researchers, educators and policymakers to develop actionable strategies for the future of education.
5. To promote evidence-based practices and research-driven solutions in teachers' training and professional development.

Expected Outcomes

1. A deeper understanding of the cutting-edge issues and trends in teacher education and research.
2. Development of actionable strategies to address challenges such as equity, inclusion and sustainability in education.
3. Strengthened collaboration among researchers, educators and policymakers to drive innovation in teacher education.
4. Dissemination of evidence-based practices and research findings to improve teachers' training and professional development.
5. A roadmap for preparing future-ready educators who can navigate the complexities of the 21st century.

Conference Format

The conference will feature a mix of keynote speeches, panel discussions, paper presentations, workshops and poster sessions. Interactive sessions will encourage participants to engage in meaningful dialogue and collaborate on solutions for the future of teacher education and research.
